On behalf of the organising committee, we are delighted to invite your organisation to partner with SARRAH for our 2026 conference in Coffs Harbour, NSW.

The 2026 National Conference for Rural and Remote Allied Health is the centerpiece of SARRAH's engagement with our members and all allied health professionals, service providers, academics, students, and state and Commonwealth governments working to ensure equitable health outcomes for rural and remote Australians. The purpose of our gathering is to share knowledge and thought leadership in the rural and remote allied health sector while networking with new and old friends.

Participants are targeted via a strategic campaign that leverages SARRAH's industry partnerships nationally, as well as a targeted communications campaign involving print and online advertising through health-related publications, websites, and social media. As part of a comprehensive and effective marketing plan, sponsorship can provide many positive results.

Benefits include:

- Exposure to a national audience within the allied health sector
- Recognition including acknowledgement and demonstration of your support for improving health outcomes for rural and remote Australia, including First Nations peoples.
- Opportunities to raise your company profile amongst a valuable target audience during this conference.
- Expand relationships and extend your networks with government, business and the NFP sectors.
- Learn first-hand about the latest rural and remote allied health workforce development and service development initiatives.
- Inclusion in the targeted marketing campaign
- Attract an allied health workforce.
